Columbus woman arrested for Illegal Drug Conveyance at Warren Correctional Institution

LEBANON - A Columbus woman will appear in Lebanon Municipal Court today after Ohio State Highway Patrol troopers arrested her Saturday for attempting to convey drugs into the Warren Correctional Institution (WCI).

Ohio State Highway Patrol troopers charged Wanikki E. Cabell, 27, with conveying drugs onto the grounds of a detention facility, a third-degree felony, and possession of criminal tools, a fifth-degree felony.

Troopers and Department of Rehabilitation and Correction Investigators obtained information that Cabell would be attempting to convey drugs to her friend, an inmate at WCI, during their scheduled visit. After being confronted with the evidence against her, Cabell voluntarily surrendered 9 balloons containing marijuana. The balloons were concealed on her person, and the marijuana weighed approximately 11 grams.

Cabell was incarcerated in the Warren County Jail. If convicted, she could face up to seven years in prison and a $15,000 fine.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol investigates criminal activity on state-owned and leased property.
